

SIMPLYR END-USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

Version: 0.1

Last updated: August 11, 2026

Effective date: August 11, 2026

This End-User License Agreement ("EULA") governs your license to use the Simplyr mobile application (the "App"). This EULA supplements the Simplyr Terms of Service and Privacy Policy. If this EULA conflicts with the Terms of Service, the Terms of Service control except where this EULA specifically addresses the App license.

By downloading, installing, or using the App, you agree to this EULA. If you do not agree, do not install or use the App.

1. License grant

Simplyr grants you a limited, personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable license to download and use the App on devices that you own or control, solely for your personal, non-commercial use and in accordance with this EULA, the Terms of Service, and applicable app-store usage rules.

The App is licensed, not sold. Simplyr and its licensors retain all rights in and to the App that are not expressly granted to you.

2. License restrictions

You may not:

- copy, reproduce, distribute, sell, rent, lease, sublicense, or make the App available for use by others except as expressly permitted by applicable law;
- reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, attempt to derive source code, or create derivative works of the App, except to the extent a restriction is prohibited by applicable law;
- modify, adapt, translate, or remove proprietary notices from the App;
- use the App to build a competing product or service;
- bypass authentication, access controls, usage limits, or security features;
- use automated tools to scrape, extract, or copy the App or its content; or
- use the App unlawfully or in a way that violates the Terms of Service.

3. Updates and changes

Simplyr may provide updates, bug fixes, patches, or new versions of the App. Updates may be required for continued use and may change, add, or remove features. Unless an update includes a separate agreement, this EULA applies to the updated App.

Simplyr may modify, suspend, or discontinue the App or a feature when reasonably necessary for security, maintenance, legal compliance, or product changes. We will provide notice when required by law.

4. User content and data

This EULA does not transfer ownership of your notes, journals, files, grades, courses, or other content. Your rights and our limited license to process that content are described in the Terms of Service and Privacy Policy.

The App may collect technical information needed to provide updates, security, support, and App functionality. Our handling of personal information is described in the Privacy Policy.

5. External services

The App may provide access to third-party websites, study resources, social networks, calendars, learning-management systems, app stores, payment services, or other services ("External Services"). External Services are controlled by their providers and may have separate terms and privacy policies.

You use External Services at your own risk. Simplyr does not guarantee their availability, accuracy, security, or content and is not responsible for third-party services. You must comply with the terms and laws that apply to any External Service you use.

6. Academic and informational use

The App provides organizational and study-support features. It is not a school, teacher, tutor, academic advisor, or guarantee of academic results. You are responsible for checking calculations, citations, deadlines, course requirements, and information before relying on them. You must follow your institution's academic-integrity rules.

7. Intellectual property

The App, including its software, design, branding, logos, text, graphics, and original features, is owned by Simplyr or its licensors and is protected by intellectual-property laws. Except for the license granted in this EULA, no rights are transferred to you.

8. Termination

This EULA begins when you accept it or use the App and continues until terminated. Your license ends automatically if you materially violate this EULA or the Terms of Service. You may terminate it by deleting the App and stopping use.

After termination, you must stop using the App and delete copies in your possession or control. Provisions that should reasonably survive termination, including ownership, restrictions, disclaimers, liability limits, and dispute terms, will survive.

9. Disclaimer of warranties

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE APP IS PROVIDED “AS IS” AND “AS AVAILABLE,” WITH ALL FAULTS AND WITHOUT WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND. SIMPLYR DISCLAIMS EXPRESS, IMPLIED, AND STATUTORY WARRANTIES, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ACCURACY, QUIET ENJOYMENT, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT.

NO INFORMATION OR ADVICE FROM SIMPLYR CREATES A WARRANTY. IF THE APP OR RELATED SERVICES ARE DEFECTIVE, YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE COST OF NECESSARY SERVICING, REPAIR, OR CORRECTION TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW.

10. Limitation of liability

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, SIMPLYR AND ITS OWNERS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, LICENSORS, AND SERVICE PROVIDERS WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, OR FOR LOST PROFITS, DATA, GOODWILL, OR OPPORTUNITIES ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO THE APP.

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, SIMPLYR’S TOTAL LIABILITY FOR CLAIMS RELATED TO THE APP WILL NOT EXCEED THE GREATER OF THE AMOUNT YOU PAID FOR THE APP OR RELATED SERVICE IN THE 12 MONTHS BEFORE THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM OR $100.

Some jurisdictions do not allow certain exclusions or limitations. Those limits apply only to the extent permitted by applicable law and do not remove non-waivable consumer rights.

11. App-store terms

If you downloaded the App from Apple’s App Store, Apple and its subsidiaries are third-party beneficiaries of this EULA and may enforce it against you as a third-party beneficiary. Apple is not responsible for maintaining or supporting the App, addressing claims about the App, or handling product, privacy, or regulatory claims relating to the App. Apple’s Standard EULA and App Store usage rules also apply.Apple Standard EULA

If you downloaded the App through another app store, that store’s terms and usage rules also apply. The store provider is not responsible for the App unless its own terms say otherwise.

12. Governing law and disputes

The governing law, venue, arbitration terms, and any class-action waiver must be finalized with qualified counsel based on Simplyr's legal entity, location, customers, and applicable consumer-protection laws. Nothing in this EULA removes any non-waivable rights or remedies available under the law where you live.

13. Changes to this EULA

We may update this EULA when the App, our practices, or legal requirements change. We will post the updated version with a new "Last updated" date and provide additional notice for material changes when required. Continued use of the App after the effective date means the updated EULA applies.
